第一回パールハーバーマッチ

(1st Annual Pearl Harbor Match)

2010年12月18日

The 1st Annual Pearl Harbor Match gave us all a chance to dust off those old stick guns and shoot a “man’s round” across the course. The turnout was surprisingly large, especially as the day started cold, wet, and gray. A misting 44° breeze did not remind us too much of Pearl Harbor, and some suggested we may want to call the match the “Battle of the Bulge” match next year. I can only say that the comments after the match solidified that no matter what we call it next year, we will have this match again in 2011. Thanks to Lee Shall (李氏はシャル) for calling the match and for allowing ME to shoot!

The very large Garand category was topped by Dan Zelenka, who took home first place and a Rising Sun lapel pin with a 451-8X. Danny MacGregor shot a borrowed rifle to take home second place and a Japanese Flag lapel pin with a 449-6X. Finally, Buck Kliebert brought home third place in the Garand category with a nice 445-2X. The much smaller bolt gun category was topped by Danny Hudson, who fired his old 1903 to finish with a 441-2X, taking home the Japanese Zero lapel pin.
