

The 2013 Regional is in the books and what a weekend! A National record tied and 4, yes, 4 range records broken.

We would like to thank Brad Buoy for once again cooking lunch. There were very few leftovers.

Also, we would like to thank Tammy Stewart and Trisha LeBlanc for handling the statistics.

A special thanks to Mickey Brinkman for keeping things in line in the pits and operating smoothly.

The weather was mild with wind both days, so conditions were just right for a match.

In F-Open, coming down from Tennessee, Brian Bowling came to win and he did just that! Brian posted a single string National record tying 200-18X on Saturday. But not content there, he went on to post a range record 600-46X, too. Sunday morning saw no change and Brian finished the day with a range record 1197-83X to take the Gold medal. Jon James from Arkansas took Silver with a 1194-61 and Lanny Russell from Louisiana took the Bronze with a 1190-64X. Brian also took High Master class winner and Jon James took 2nd. In the Master/Master Unclassified, David McLain from Mississippi took the win with a 1184-55X.

In F-TR, David Alridge from Louisiana came out of the Expert ranks to post a High Master score of 1179-48X to walk away with the Gold medal. That score was also a new range record. David can expect to see that High Master card showing up in his mail in a couple of weeks. Silver went to Chris Umfress from Mississippi with a 1170-25X and Bronze went to Chris Hebert from Louisiana with a 1169-29X, High Master class winner was Chris Umfress. 1st Master went to Anthony Acrement from Louisiana. David Aldridge took 1st in Expert class and Bryan Powell from Louisiana won the Sharpshooter/Marksman class with a 1121-23X.

There was a close battle in the Prone group with Gary Henry from Mississippi winning Saturday by 1 point and Stacey Tamulinas from Texas winning by 1 point on Sunday. When it was all tallied up Stacey bested Gary by 1 X, posting a 1195-74X to Gary's 1195-73X to take the Gold medal. Gary took the Silver and Bill Jenkins from Louisiana took home the Bronze with a 1188-61X. Stacey was also 1st High Master. Harold Sightler from Louisiana took 1st in the Master/Master Unclassified class with a 1181-54X and Bill Lackey from Mississippi took 2nd with a 1166-48X. Robert Bose of Louisiana was 1st Expert with a 1159-29X and Mario Fajardo from Florida won the Sharpshooter/Marksman class with a 1124-24X.

Thanks to all who came out. See you next month.

Rick, Mickey and Ted
